1. No contact with the net is allowed while the ball is in play. If the force of the ball by an opponent pushes the net into a player, this rule does not apply.
2. Reaching over the net is only permitted during:
   a. follow-through of a hit made on players own side
   b. a block of a ball traveling towards the net
3. No foot contact is allowed beyond the center line
4. Recovering the ball after it hits into the net is allowed
5. Any ball contacting and crossing over the net, shall remain in play
6. A successive play of the ball by a player whose first play was an attempt to block is permitted. The second play shall count as the first of the three hits allowed by this players team.
7. After a simultaneous contact by opponents, the player on the opposite side of the net from which the ball falls shall be considered the player who touched the ball last. The other player may participate in the next play and it shall be the first hit for their team.
8. A ball simultaneously held by opposing players is a double foul and replayed.

PLAYING THE GAME
Rotation by the serving team occurs on every change of serve, in a clockwise direction. A ball touching the boundary line is good
